

Thoughts on the Daily Word

4th Week of Year. Thursday 5th February. Readings: 1 Kings 2:1-4,10-12; Psalm: 1 Chronicles 29:10-12; Gospel: Mark 6:7-13.

We are given a programme in each of our readings today. Both will involve death. David is a human being, as is Jesus. The difference is what follows that death, disaster will follow David's while new life will follow that of Jesus. Each of us needs to identify our programme or vision for the future. While it will be unique to each one of us it must follow the pattern laid down in God's Word. Prayer leads us ever deeper in the programme as we discern where God is leading us. We can trust him though, he will never let us go, just as he did not let David or Jesus go.
