

Thoughts on the Daily Word:

24th Week of Year. Wednesday 20th September. Readings: 1 Timothy 3:14-16; Psalm: 110; Luke 7:31-35.

The Gospel points today at the rhythm of life. A time to enjoy and a time to struggle, a time to celebrate and a time to fast. It is one of the most important parts of our liturgical and sacramental lives. To know when to move from joy to sorrow and back again. Our first reading follows this point in its description of how to behave in the light of being God's family. The flesh and the Spirit are both important at the right time and place. It is bringing them both together that makes for a true Catholic life. A life lived and discovered in the mystery of God's Plan for us.
