

Thoughts on the Daily Word:

32nd Week of Year. Friday 17th November. Readings: Wisdom 13:1-9; Psalm: 18; Luke 17:26-37.

God has a plan! And we have a choice! Today's powerful readings emphasise both the power of God and the need for us to choose his plan. That is the 'reign' of 'kingdom' of Christ. The wise person chooses God in the light of Christ rather than the seduction of other powers. We are coming to the end of our liturgical year, in other words we have been prepared for service, diakonia, now we have to make choices and decisions as to which direction we will go in. Our time has helped us to find what God is calling us to do and to be. Now is the time.
