

Thoughts on the Daily Word:

32nd Week of Year. Saturday 18th November. Readings: Wisdom 18:14-16,19:6-9; Psalm: 104; Luke 18:1-8.

Once again God has a plan! Wisdom and Word is included in the first reading and understood as a prelude by Christians to the coming of Christ, the Word of God. In the Gospel it is God as a judge, someone who makes things happen, and acts with justice. Just as the first reading sees justice done to the liberated Hebrew slaves so God will answer our needs when we call upon him. Once again, the Exodus story provides the basis of just how God acts for his People.
