If you have any worries about infections then please do not hesitate to use face masks, which will be available at the entrance to the Church House.

Jubilee 2025: Pope Francis has announced that 2025 will be a year of Jubilee, and the theme is “Pilgrims of Hope”. It will be a year of pilgrimage and prayer; celebration and reconciliation and we’ll be opening the Jubilee Year in our Diocese with celebrations at our 2 Jubilee Hub Churches on Sunday 29th December. Bishop Stephen will be celebrating Mass and opening the Holy Door at St. Mary’s Cathedral, Newcastle at 11.30am and at St. Joseph’s Hartlepool at 4.00pm. Everyone is welcome. There’s more information about the Jubilee Year on the Diocesan website at <https://www.bit.ly/DHNjubilee2025>.

Diocesan changes 2: Bishop Stephen has now inaugurated changes in our diocesan structure. Our diocese is now divided into five Deaneries, each one led by a Dean. This is to enable our much smaller number of clergy to work better together. In the new year he will be reviewing our Partnerships and how best to develop them. Our parish has now been returned to the northern Deanery that encompasses Northumberland. This Deanery will be led by Fr. Shaun O’Neill, based in Berwick. The Gateshead and South Tyneside Deanery, which includes our former Partnership, will be led by Fr. Martin Stempczyk based in Gateshead. Fr. Jeffrey Dodds of Hexham has now become Vicar-General of the north of the diocese, covering Northumberland, North Tyneside, Newcastle, Gateshead and South Tyneside. Fr. Mark Millward will be Vicar General of the south of the diocese.
